This year's Franklin Event will be a party not to be missed!

Please join Printing Industries Alliance and the Print Drives America Foundation for the 68th Annual Franklin Event, the highlight of the year for the printing industry and the only event where the who's who of the industry will be found in a single venue. The Franklin Event will take place on Wednesday, November 17, 2021 at Club 101, a private club located at 101 Park Avenue in New York City.

Because of the pandemic pause, the Franklin Award will be presented to two individuals, Michael Duggal, CEO of Duggal Visual Solutions (2021 recipient) and Thomas Quinlan, former CEO of LSC Communications and RR Donnelley & Sons (2020 recipient).

Two Honorees, a new Park Avenue private club venue, a sit-down dinner, a two-level atrium foyer for cocktails with music from Jazz at Lincoln Center and a newly added in house after party.

Sponsor a table of eight for $6500, or a table of four for $3500. Purchase an individual ticket for $350. Contact Kim Tuzzo at Printing Industries Alliance at (716) 691 3211 or ktuzzo@PIAlliance.org or visit pialliance.org/2021_franklin_event/. Proceeds from the event support the Print Drives America Foundation.
