

Attention All Graphic Arts Professionals

2023 Zenger Community Service Medal

Nominations
Due: February 24, 2023

69th Annual  Franklin Event

The Zenger Community Service Medal will be presented during the Franklin Event on March 30, 2023

DO YOU HAVE A BUSINESS COLLEAGUE WHO...

- Selflessly provides time to a charity?
- Helped move a community or group to take positive action?
- Showed valor in an act of courage?

WE WANT TO RECOGNIZE YOUR HERO!

Print & Graphic Communications Association is seeking nominees for the Zenger Community Service Medal, honoring a graphic communications professional who has demonstrated exceptional community service.

THESE INDIVIDUALS...

- Inspire us to be more than we are.
- Make our community a better place to live.
- Serve our country in ways that make us proud.

The Award is not based on business position or title and is meant to recognize an employee at any level of the industry. Nominations could include a press operator who serves as a volunteer firefighter, an account executive who leads a charity organization, or a CEO who shows significant dedication to community service.

HISTORY

The prestigious Zenger Community Service Medal is named for John Peter Zenger, an influential printer in American history. Zenger was a New York City-based printer whose arrest, imprisonment, trial, and acquittal in 1735 laid the foundation for freedom of the press in Colonial America. The Award is inscribed in Latin, "Non numinis, virtute parator." Translated, this means, "Not by money, but by virtue gained."
